The HBL Junior Tier 3 Open will be in operation next weekend starting at 8.30am both days. Doubles competitions will run on the Saturday and Singles competitions on Sunday. In previous years, Simon has tried to squeeze this all into one day which has often led to very long days with kids having to hang around for long periods between games. Andrew is hoping that this change of format will make it a bit easier on kids and parents. He has got some great prizes up for grabs including a brand new tennis racquet. A free sausage sizzle will follow close of play on the Sunday. Entries for the tournament close on Wednesday. Click the link for full info and entry

Please note that Senior Club Day will follow on from the Junior Open on the Saturday as courts start to free up around 1.30 – 2.00pm

Other Tennis Notices

It was nice to see Business House team sponsor Jane Davison back in the blue of BNZ last night playing alongside life partner Hamish and getting the win in the battle for 2nd place with General Compression. Stu Farnworth and Lucy Morris are stunned by the partnership of Allen Hokai and Lee Wishnowsky as BNZ make a clear bid for a place in the A grade final with 3 rounds left to play. There is really only one final spot up for grabs though with Bad Kids now 17 points ahead at the top following their max points win over Continuous Spouting. 6th & 7th placed NRE and Tumu Timbers enjoy the closest battle of the evening with NRE coming off best 21-20.

Rench Builders also now have an almost unassailable lead of 15 points at the top of Division B with their 5th max points win of the season. Langley Twigg are doing their best to keep pace with them but that level of consistency is just a bit too demanding for their squad. The boys from Ramage, yet again, prove themselves to be incredibly average tennis players going down to Baker Tilly but they did show their prowess in the sales department by converting all raffle numbers to moolah in record time. Impressive!

So far so good for both our Saturday mixed 4's interclub teams. Our Reserve Grade team are now 2 from 2 with another good win over CHB broncos:

Our premis team had to work a little bit harder for their victory over CHB and our two doubles pairings digging deep for their super tie-breaks, showing strength of character to secure the early wins that put the team in charge going into the singles matches. Andrew will be particularly happy with his 6-3, 6-0 singles win over the very experienced Craig Giddy.
